RON ENGBERSON

Date: 09/17/2015

The Board of Pharmacy
431 W. Plumb Lane
Reno, NV 89509

Board of Pharmacy,

I am writing you today to request the reinstatement of my pharmacy license. I voluntarily surrendered it almost three years ago while under investigation for filling my own prescriptions. I pled guilty and was sentenced to two years of probation and was given a suspended imposition of sentence. The conviction was set aside upon my completion of my probation on March 10th of 2015. My lawyer, Kevin Fitzgerald, is going to send a letter outlining the legal aspects of this request.

I understand the seriousness of my actions and the damage it caused my family, my profession and myself. When the article came out in the Anchorage Daily News, it caused great embarrassment and shame. My actions caused great detriment to myself and those around me. As a result of losing my license, I was unemployed for eight months, had to file bankruptcy, lost the house we loved, and I had to give our vehicles back to the bank. I also lost my membership in my church and was disfellowshipped for almost two years. My wife and daughters left me for a period of nine months while I worked out my issues. This was a very hard time, but it made me think on what I wanted and what I hold most dear to me. I will never again do something that would bring so much pain and embarrassment to my family.

I finally found a job working at Pacific Tile in Anchorage running the warehouse and selling tile. It's not what I want to do or enjoy doing but it is honest employment that helps to pay the bills. I have worked there for a little over two years. I have tried to stay current with pharmacy by reading online articles on drug topics. I miss being a Pharmacist. I loved helping people with their concerns, and I hope it is something I can do again.

I saw a counselor for three months, and it helped me to figure out my actions. I am narcotic-free and only take Gabapentin and Advil for the pinched nerve in my back. I am willing to comply with any restrictions and/or requirements that you would require to move forward.

Thank you for taking the time to reconsider my reinstatement of my license.

Sincerely,

Ron Engberson

WAIVER OF INDICTMENT

Court No. 3AN-12-13617 CR

I, the above-named defendant, am charged with violation of: AS 11.46.505, Forgery in the Second Degree. I am fully advised of the following:

1. Under the Alaska Constitution I have a right to have the above charge presented to a Grand Jury for review.
2. A Grand Jury consists of 12 to 18 citizens who hear evidence presented by the District Attorney through witnesses.
3. During the presentation of a case before the Grand Jury, only the District Attorney, a clerk, and the witness are present.
4. The Grand Jury can return an indictment against me only upon the concurrence of a majority of the total number of jurors and when all the evidence taken together, if unexplained or uncontradicted, would warrant a conviction of me at trial.
5. If the Grand Jury declines to indict me after reviewing the evidence, the effect is to dismiss the charge which was before them; and that charge may not be again submitted to the Grand Jury without a court order.
6. The effect of an indictment being returned by the Grand Jury is to place the charges against me before the Superior Court.

7. The effect of a Waiver of Indictment by me will be to allow the charges against me to be placed before the Superior Court without the Grand Jury having reviewed the evidence in my case.

I have received a copy of the Complaint or Information charging me with the offense referred to above and therefore I am familiar with the nature of the charges against me.

I have been advised by my attorney and the court of the nature of the charges against me and my right to indictment by Grand Jury. I have taken into consideration the information listed above. I hereby waive in open court prosecution by Indictment and consent to prosecution in Superior Court by information rather than indictment.

RE: Ronald Engberson Character Endorsement

Dear Mrs. Nally:

I have known Ron Engberson for approximately 7 years, primarily as his ecclesiastical Bishop in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Together with his wife and two beautiful daughters, he has always been an extremely active and faithful member of our church, devoting much time and effort to helping and serving others both by way of assignment and by his own initiative. I worked with Ron and his family closely from the time he was terminated by his employer and through his indictment and conviction process in the years that followed.

At the time Ron was terminated from his employment as a Pharmacist, he voluntarily came forward and confessed his professional mistakes with much emotion and regret. He fully understood his actions were contrary to the teachings and principles of our church and that the resulting consequences were necessary to help him make amends. He was anxious to move forward in his life and humbly submitted himself to a formal church disciplinary council over which I presided. That council followed the outcome of his legal proceedings and resulted in a two-year repentance process involving significant restrictions related to his membership in the Church together with a charge to involve himself in specific activities to help him make restitution to society and the church, improve his resolve to never repeat such an offense and to find peace and forgiveness. He readily accepted this council and faithfully complied in every respect for the entire two-year period. Recently, his membership privileges were fully restored by church officials, an indication of his full repentance by our church standards.

During this time of great difficulty in his life he found employment in a local tile supply shop far below his intellectual ability and usual compensation. This resulted in significant financial hardship. He lost his home and suffered much but was blessed by the support of his loving wife, children, extended family and friends. We were pleased to help him and his family sustain life with food and basic supplies through our church resources in return for their help cleaning our church buildings. He worked hard, showed much gratitude and never complained or became bitter or angry.

What I observed in Ron throughout this ordeal was completely the opposite of what one might expect of someone who made such a professional mistake. He accepted and suffered the consequences with humility and grace. He was determined to re-earn the trust of others no matter how long it took. He was never reclusive or sought to hide from society to cover his embarrassment or shame or seek relief from controlled substances, nor were these ever used by him prior to the incidents in question. The people who know him best readily forgave and helped him and he has clearly regained their complete trust. I consider this a remarkable achievement and have come to admire him greatly for how he worked through this period of great difficulty.

Perhaps no one can accurately predict whether someone will repeat a former mistake or not. Societal trends may not be positive. In my informed opinion both as a 30 year healthcare administrator and 5 ½ years as a Bishop, if anyone were unlikely to repeat such a mistake, it would be Ron Engberson. He has paid a heavy price and become an even better person as a result of his humility and faithful actions in the face of serious consequences.

I fully vouch for his character and endorse his professional reinstatement. I urge you and others involved in reviewing his application to take these facts into consideration and use compassion in rendering a decision; the same compassion all of us would hope for if we found ourselves in similar circumstances. He has a passion for his noble profession as a pharmacist. He labored hard to achieve his academic credentials at great personal expense. He loves serving people and hopes to continue doing so. At the same time, knowing Ron, he will gracefully accept and deal any decision and continue to move forward in his life.

May God bless and inspire you in your decision.

Kindest regards,
