RE: Sergio Garcia

Case #: C339888

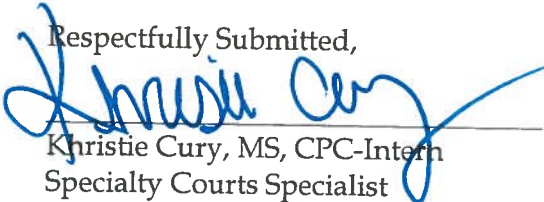

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in reference to Mr. Garcia. Mr. Garcia was accepted into the Felony DUI Program (formerly the Serious Offender Program) on May 22, 2019 for case # C339888. The Felony DUI program is a three-year Specialty Court Program pursuant to NRS 484C.340, which states that upon successful completion of the program, the court will enter a judgment of conviction for a misdemeanor instead of a felony offense. In the interim, the charge will show as a pending felony, but no judgment of conviction is entered until the participant either successfully completes the program or he is terminated due to non-compliance.

Mr. Garcia is currently compliant in the Felony DUI Program. His current expectations are to participate in two treatment sessions per week, attend two sober support group sessions per week, submit to random drug and alcohol screens, maintain a breath ignition interlock device in all vehicles he owns, operates, or are maintained at his residence, abide by all rules and regulations of probation, and attend standard court status checks in Department 7 of District Court. Mr. Garcia has shown excellent participation and contributes a great deal to this program.

Please contact me for any further updates, questions or concerns.

Respectfully Submitted,

To whom it may concern,

My name is Britney McDermott, I am writing this letter in regards to my application to be a certified pharmacy technician in the state of Nevada. I want to explain my situation that will come up on the application that I do have a background, I was convicted of a misdemeanor charge in 2016 however the case has been expunged which I have included documentation of. The case was for child endangerment, I worked as a nanny at the time and I made a huge mistake while the children were in my care. The children were not harmed or injured in the process and the parents did not press charges on me, however the district attorney did and that is how I was convicted. I was young and not thinking clearly about my decisions and how they would affect others and myself. The parents of the children were understanding and took into consideration that I was young, this was my first nanny position, and the pressure of managing a household and three children was a lot and that she wanted me to still have a future and stable employment after moving on; we both mutually agreed that child care was not the field I should be working in.

I attended Parenting classes for 52 sessions at El Monte-Rosemead Adult School which equaled out to over one year total and I have a certificate of completion for Parenting the Adolescent and for Skillful Parenting. I have paid all fines and fees, attended all my court dates on time, and completed 120 hours of community service, while there and throughout these past two years I have had so much time to reflect on my mistakes and how I want to make a better life for myself in the future. I volunteer my time weekly to help families with different issues come together and learn how the Bible's guidance can help them in their lives as it has practicing it in my life.

I will ensure that it will not happen again because I am older, and have learned from my errors. I have suffered financially, mentally, and emotionally from not being able to find suitable work due to this charge. I have been able to attain my certification in the state of California however my husband and I are planning to relocate to Nevada within the next few months. To get this certification would be a fresh start for me, Never again will I put myself in a position where I put anyone's children or anyone in general in harm's way. My application should be considered because I am a motivated, hardworking person who managed to complete my pharmacy technician course with an A grade, work overnight at a warehouse, and still manage family life best I could. I want to help people in their daily lives whether it's managing their long term health problems or just minor temporary issues they are dealing with as a pharmacy technician. I hope that I can get my second chance at life by being a certified pharmacy technician in the state of Nevada.

Thank you for your time and consideration of my application.

Britney McDermott

DATE: 8/30/2019
TIME: 8:30 a.m.
DEPT: 2

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE TONY CHO AND THE ASSIGNED DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY::

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on 8/30/2019 at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard in Department 2 of the Superior Court, or such other courtroom to which said motion is assigned, the defendant, Brittney Hannah, by and through her attorney, the Public Defender for the County of Los Angeles, will move, and does hereby move the court to terminate her probation early pursuant to the provisions of Penal Code §1203.3, and to order withdrawal of her guilty plea, and dismissal of the accusatory pleadings pursuant to the provisions of Penal Code §1203.4.

CASE # 6EM01285

On June 20, 2016, Ms. Hannah entered a no contest plea to a charge of PC 273a(b), a misdemeanor. She was subsequently sentenced to four years of summary probation, and ordered to complete fifteen days of community labor and a 52-week parenting course. She was additionally subject to a protective order and weapons conditions.

On July 28, 2016, Ms. Hannah filed proof of enrollment in her parenting course.

On July 27, 2017, Ms. Hannah filed proof of completion in her parenting course.

On December 6, 2017, Ms. Hannah filed proof of completion of her community labor and paid her court fees.

This is the only case on Ms. Hannah's record, and she has completed over three years of her four year probationary period without incident.

ARGUMENT

I. PENAL CODE SECTION 1203.3 SPECIFICALLY PROVIDES THAT THIS COURT HAS THE BROAD DISCRETION TO MODIFY A PROBATIONARY SENTENCE.

Penal Code section 1203.3, subdivision (a) provides, in relevant part, that:

The court shall have authority at any time during the term of probation to revoke, modify, or change its order of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence. The court may at any time when the ends of justice will be subserved thereby, and when the good conduct and reform of the person so held on probation shall warrant it, terminate the period of probation, and discharge the person so held.

(Pen. Code. § 1203.3.)

Probation is neither "punishment" nor a criminal "judgment." Rather, probation is an act of clemency in lieu of punishment whose primary purpose is rehabilitative in nature. (See People v. Cookson (1991) 54 Cal.3d 1091, 1097; People v. Howard (1997) 16 Cal.4th 1081, 1092.) Moreover, this Court may terminate probation and discharge the probationer "when the ends of justice will be subserved thereby, and when the good conduct and reform of the person so held on probation shall warrant it." (Pen. Code § 1203.3(a).)

According to the language of Penal Code Section 1203.3, this Court has broad discretion, powers, and authority to modify and terminate a grant of probation at any point

1 following a court's original grant of probation.

2 In this case, Ms. Hannah was placed on summary probation. She completed all of her
3 obligations timely and did not miss any court dates. She appeared in advance of her court date
4 to request an extension for completion of labor and fees, and then completed those by the 5 prescribed deadline. She was never found in violation, and never had her probation revoked.

6 II. A COURT MAY DISMISS A CASE IN THE INTERESTS OF JUSTICE.

7 According to Penal Code Section 1203.4, "...in any case in which a court, in its
8 discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief
9 available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period
10 of probation, if he is not then serving a sentence for any commission of any offense, on 11 probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the 12 court to withdraw his plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty, and the court shall thereupon

13 dismiss the accusations..." If the Court were to grant Ms. Hannah's petition for early 14 termination of probation, Ms. Hannah would not presently serving a sentence for any offense,
15 on probation for any offense, or charged with any offense.

16 It is in the interest of justice to grant post-conviction dismissal this case because Ms.
17 Hannah has learned from her time in the court system and has been living an honest and 18 upright life. As discussed above, Ms. Hannah quickly completed her court requirements and 19 committed no violations.

20 In addition, Ms. Hannah completed a pharmacy technician course with an A grade, and 21 has obtained a pharmacy technician license in the state of California.

22 However, Ms. Hannah has experienced hardships as a result of being on probation.
23 Despite receiving her license, she has been unable to apply for most positions in her new field
24 because they require background checks and employers are unwilling to look past her
25 probationary status. Further, she and her husband have been unable to relocate because both 26 landlords and homeowners' associations run similar background checks.

4. The court DENIES the petition for dismissal under Penal Code (check all that apply)☐ § 1203.4 ☐ § 1203.4a ☐ § 1203.41 ☐ § 1203.42 ☐ § 1203.43 ☐ § 1203.49 for (check one)a. ☐ ALL CONVICTIONS OR PLEAS FOR DEFERRED ENTRY OF JUDGMENT in the above-entitled action.b. ☐ only the following convictions or pleas for deferred entry of judgment in the above-entitled action (specify charges and date of conviction or plea for deferred entry of judgment):5. In granting this order under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.49, the court finds that the petitioner was a victim of human trafficking when he or she committed the crime. The court orders (check one)a. ☐ the relief described in section 1203.4.b. ☐ the relief described in section 1203.4, with the following exceptions (specify):6. If the order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.49, the Department of Justice is hereby notified that ~~petitioner was a victim of human trafficking when he or she committed the crime, and of the relief ordered.~~

7. If this order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.41, or 1203.42,

a. the petitioner is required to disclose the above conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, or for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery Commission; and

b. dismissal of the conviction does not automatically relieve petitioner from the requirement to register as a sex offender. (See, e.g., Pen. Code, § 290.5.)

8. If the order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, 1203.42, or 1203.49, the petitioner is released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense except as provided in Penal Code sections 29800 and 29900 (formerly sections 12021 and 12021.1) and Vehicle Code section 13555. In any subsequent prosecution of the petitioner for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The dismissal does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her control a firearm if prevented by Penal Code sections 29800 or 29900 (formerly sections 12021 and 12021.1). Dismissal of a conviction does not permit a person prohibited from holding public office as a result of that conviction to hold public office.

9. In addition, as required by Penal Code section 299(f), relief under Penal Code sections 17(b), 17(d)(2), 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, 1203.42, or 1203.49 does not release petitioner from the separate administrative duty to provide specimens, samples, or print impressions under the DNA and Forensic Identification Database and Data Bank Act (Pen. Code, § 295 et seq.) if petitioner was found guilty by a trier of fact, not guilty by reason of insanity, or pled no contest to a qualifying offense as defined in Penal Code section 296(a).

FOR COURT USE ONLY

10. The basis for an order of dismissal granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.43 is the invalidity of defendant's prior plea due to misinformation in former Penal Code section 1000.4 regarding the actual consequences of making a plea and successful completion of a deferred entry of judgment program.
