

Collaborative Practice Checklist
Entity:
Date of Review:
Reviewed by:
Yes	No	Information	Comments	Concerns
		CPA includes monitoring of controlled substances.
		Expiration date not later than 1 year after effective date.
		Practitioner licensed in NV.
		Practitioner actively practices his/her profession within 100 miles of the location of the pharmacist.
		Practitioner - Informed written consent
		Pharmacist - Informed written consent
		Pharmacist informed consent contains required language.
		A description of the types of decisions concerning the management of drug therapy that the pharmacist is authorized to make, which may include a specific description of the diseases and drugs for which the pharmacist is authorized to manage drug therapy.
		A detailed explanation of the procedures that the pharmacist must follow when engaging in the collaborative practice of pharmacy, including, without limitation, the manner in which the pharmacist must document decisions concerning treatment and care in accordance with the general pharmacist responsibilities listed
		The procedure by which the pharmacist will notify the practitioner of an adverse event concerning the health of the patient.
		The procedure by which the practitioner will provide the pharmacist with a diagnosis of the patient and any other medical information necessary to carry out the patient’s drug therapy management.
		A description of the means by which the practitioner will monitor clinical outcomes of a patient and intercede when necessary to protect the health of the patient or accomplish the goals of the treatment prescribed for the patient.

		Authorization for the practitioner to override the agreement if necessary to protect the health of the patient or accomplish the goals of the treatment prescribed for the patient.
		Authorization for either party to terminate the agreement by written notice to the other party, which must include, without limitation, written notice to the patient that informs the patient of the procedures by which he or she may continue drug therapy.
		Effective date of the agreement.
		The date by which a review must be conducted for renewal of the collaborative practice agreement, which must be not later than the expiration date of the agreement.
		The address of the location where the records will be maintained.		